AUSTIN, TEXAS

PROCEEDINGS

ELEVENTH DAY

(Wednesday, February 7, 2007)

The Senate met at 11:00 a.m. pursuant to adjournment and was called to order by Dean Whitmire.

The roll was called and the following Senators were present: Averitt, Brimer, Carona, Deuell, Duncan, Eltife, Estes, Fraser, Harris, Hegar, Hinojosa, Jackson, Janek, Lucio, Nelson, Nichols, Ogden, Patrick, Seliger, Shapiro, Shapleigh, Uresti, Van de Putte, Watson, Wentworth, West, Whitmire, Williams, Zaffirini.

Absent-excused: Ellis, Gallegos.

The Presiding Officer announced that a quorum of the Senate was present.

The Right Reverend Monsignor Dermot Brosnan, Saint Peter-Saint Joseph Children's Home, San Antonio, offered the invocation as follows:

O God, You are the source of life. You are the way, the truth, and the life. It is the truth that sets us free. You guide and govern everything with order and love. Look upon the leader and Members of the State Senate and fill them with the spirit of Your wisdom. May they always act in accordance with Your will and their decisions be for the peace and well-being of all. In Your goodness, watch over those in authority so that people everywhere may enjoy freedom, security, and peace. Grant our national, state, and local leaders wisdom, justice, and fortitude, that they may conduct the affairs of their people in accord with the will of God. Amen.

Senator Wentworth moved that the reading of the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday be dispensed with and the Journal be approved as printed.

The motion prevailed without objection.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION 55

The Presiding Officer laid before the Senate the following resolution:

HCR 55, Designating February 7, 2007, as Rusk County Day at the State Capitol.

ELTIFE

The resolution was read.

On motion of Senator Eltife and by unanimous consent, the resolution was considered immediately and was adopted by a viva voce vote.

All Members are deemed to have voted "Yea" on the adoption of the resolution except as follows:

Absent-excused: Ellis, Gallegos.

SENATE RESOLUTION 145

Senator Shapleigh offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The Senate of the State of Texas is pleased to recognize February 7, 2007, as El Paso Day at the State Capitol; and

WHEREAS, Located at the far westernmost tip of the state, the City of El Paso combines the amenities of a modern metropolis with the charm born of its Spanish origins; the area was named El Paso by the Spanish conquistador Don Juan de Oñate; and

WHEREAS, The arrival of the railroads in 1881 ushered in an era of prosperity, and El Paso became a flourishing frontier community; today, trucks, trains, and airplanes transport manufactured goods through El Paso and the border cities at the Pass, just as the Spanish traders did in the 16th century as they guided their ox-drawn carts along the Camino Real from Mexico City to Santa Fe, New Mexico; and

WHEREAS, With a population of over one-half million, El Paso is the state's fifth-largest city; nearby Fort Bliss is home to the United States Army's air defense training center and plays a significant role in the community; and

WHEREAS, El Paso is a vibrant bilingual community, whose residents enjoy a thriving fine arts community, exemplary educational institutions, and many cultural and historical resources and museums; and

WHEREAS, El Paso Day at the State Capitol provides an opportunity for friends and families to honor El Paso's rich heritage and the city's many amenities, which are enjoyed by residents and visitors of all ages; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 80th Legislature, hereby proclaim February 7, 2007, El Paso Day at the State Capitol and join all Texans in paying tribute to this historic, vibrant city; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared as a memento of this special occasion.

SR 145 was read and was adopted without objection.

GUESTS PRESENTED

Senator Shapleigh was recognized and introduced to the Senate representatives from the City of El Paso: Mayor John Cook, El Paso County Judge Anthony Cobos, District 2 Representative Susie Byrd, Colonel Robert Burns of Fort Bliss, and Precinct 3 County Commissioner Miguel A. Teran, accompanied by a delegation of citizens from El Paso.

The Senate welcomed its guests.

SENATE RESOLUTION 186

Senator Shapiro offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, In order to increase public awareness of the extraordinary achievements of the technology and life-sciences industries and the vital role they play in the prosperity of the Lone Star State, February 5 through 9, 2007, is being celebrated as Texas Technology Week; and

WHEREAS, The sponsors of Texas Technology Week are the AeA Texas Council, the Texas Healthcare and Bioscience Institute, the Metroplex Technology Business Council, and TechNet Texas; and

WHEREAS, The technology and life-sciences industries and research institutions of Texas are making leading-edge advances in medicine, space exploration, computing, communications, energy, and transportation and are revolutionizing the world we live in; within the state, these industries employ more Texans than do the oil, natural gas, and agriculture industries combined, and their well-paying, highly skilled jobs contribute to a diverse and growing economy; and

WHEREAS, People around the globe have benefited immeasurably from the medical treatments and devices developed by Texas companies; the Texas Healthcare and Bioscience Institute, membership of which includes universities and private research institutions and biotechnology, medical device, and pharmaceutical companies, acknowledges that between 2000 and 2004 approximately 2,741 Texas biotechnology patents were issued and that Texas biotechnology-related patent growth is outpacing the national average; and

WHEREAS, The life-sciences industry is a significant pillar of the Texas economy; the industry in Texas includes approximately 3,000 establishments employing over 75,400 Texans and has the promise of continued job growth for many years to come; and

WHEREAS, The nation's largest high-technology trade group, AeA, reports that Texas ranks second in the country in high-technology employment; the state provides approximately 436,000 jobs, and 57 of every 1,000 private sector workers in our state are employed by high-technology firms; moreover, Texas ranks 12th among all the states in terms of its high-technology average wage; the wage is nearly double that of the average private sector worker, allowing the industry to provide an aggregate high-technology payroll of $31.5 billion; the importance of this industry to Texans is further underscored by the fact that high-technology products account for 26 percent of the state's international exports; and

WHEREAS, All sectors of the technology and life-sciences community are joining together this week to discuss the major issues facing their industries and to affirm their support for strong systems of public and higher education, which is critical to maintaining the highly skilled workforce on which these industries depend; and

WHEREAS, The technology and life-sciences industries have become tremendous engines for economic growth in the State of Texas, and the benefits of their research and production enrich people the world over; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 80th Legislature, hereby recognize February 5 through 9, 2007, as Texas Technology Week and commend its sponsors for their outstanding work in supporting and promoting research, development, products, service, and manufacturing in the State of Texas; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared in honor of the sponsors of Texas Technology Week.

SR 186 was read and was adopted without objection.

GUESTS PRESENTED

Senator Shapiro was recognized and introduced to the Senate Bill Sproull, Metroplex Technology Business Council; Geoff Wurzel, TechNet Texas; Mary Pat Moyer, Texas Healthcare and Bioscience Institute; and Clare Emerson, American Electronics Association, representing Texas Technology Week.

The Senate welcomed its guests.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION 18

The Presiding Officer laid before the Senate the following resolution:

WHEREAS, Section 17, Article III, Texas Constitution, provides that neither house of the legislature may adjourn for more than three days without the consent of the other house; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the 80th Legislature of the State of Texas, That each house grant the other permission to adjourn for more than three days during the period beginning on Wednesday, February 7, 2007, and ending on Monday, February 12, 2007.
